Glam diva Brandy, fresh-faced Katie and classically cute Kirsten all have dramatically different beauty styles. Whose look resembles your own?

grande mochaccino on the way to school.

(c) splash water on your face—you're flushed with nervousness over a first-period history test.

5 In the hallway, your friend Audrey needs a post-PE touch-up and asks to borrow your makeup bag. In it, she'll find

(a) cover-up, blush, lipstick and some moisturizer.

(b) flavored lip balm and a half-empty tube of sunscreen.

(c) pressed powder, a variety of lipsticks and glosses, mascara, and eyeliner.

1 It's Friday morning and your alarm clock is blaring. You stumble into the shower and

(a) suds up with whatever soap is in there—like Dad's favorite, Lifebuoy.

(b) lather with fruity body wash, use a two-in-one shampoo plus conditioner, and rinse off.

(c) shampoo, apply a conditioning treatment, glide a razor over your legs and exfoliate with a loofah.

2 You're standing in front of your hurricane-stricken closet trying to find something to wear. You

(a) flip through the hangers and pair a sheer peasant top with a matching drawstring skirt.

(b) grab a high-neck sweatshirt and the first pair of cargo pants you see.

(c) go through half your wardrobe before deciding on a cotton camisole, printed sarong and bandanna.

3 All dressed. Now the only thing standing between you and breakfast is fixing your face and managing that mane. You figure this will take

(a) about five minutes. You just need to rake a comb through your hair before you toast your English muffin.

(b) more than 10 minutes. You have to sweep a few strokes of blush across your cheeks, slick gloss on your lips and sleek your hair back in a ponytail.

(c) at least half an hour. You assemble all the tools—straightening iron, eyelash curler, brushes, Q-Tips and makeup—before getting down to business.

4 You make it to school with two minutes to spare before the first bell rings, just enough time to race to the bathroom and

(a) check your reflection—your new mascara lengthens and curls, but it also has a tendency to give you raccoon eyes.

(b) answer nature's call—you drank a

6 At lunch, Shane, the Irish foreign exchange student, asks you out for Saturday night. You want to get your brasses trimmed beforehand. How much are you willing to fork over for a haircut?

(a) As little as possible, so you'll check out a cheap chain like Mop Chop Shop.

(b) Whatever your favorite local salon is charging these days.

(c) No price is too high for a great cut—you'll try to get an appointment with Eduardo, the new stylist in town.

7 After school, you head to the mall with your pals to shop for the date. On the way inside, you tell the girls that you must stop at Cosmetics Corner to buy

(a) pear-scented hand cream.

(b) a new gold eyeshadow you read about in a magazine.

(c) a hairbrush. ►
